

Firelight

Team Members have fun acting out a developing story while participating in the team-building weekend.

Back L to R:
Katy Self and
Emily Fisk

Front L to R:
Amanda Lewis
and Nicole
Graziano

Forestgate Community Theatre announces Firelight, an ensemble of “Teens reaching teens through educational and ministry driven drama.”

Directed by Christa Funke

Firelight Update!

Assistant Directors: Jenni Rader and Trevor Fisk

Team members: Nicole Graziano, Amanda Lewis, Katy Self, Emily Fisk, and Trey

At the end of January, Firelight team members participated in an all-day team-building event hosted at director Christa Funke’s house. The activities included creating a photo story-board and narrating the story for their directors, giving improvisational advertisements for random objects, and playing several get-to-know you games.

L to R: Joy Clarkson, Emily Fisk, and Nicole Graziano.
Unfortunately, Joy is no long with Firelight.

Trey learns the dangers of being the only boy in Firelight.

L to R: Joy Clarkson, Trey, Emily Fisk

Firelight is currently finishing their ministry program and will be ready to perform starting in the end of March. Our first performance will be for the Forestgate Youth Group on March 31st. Stay tuned for further information concerning upcoming performances.

For more information, or to request Firelight to perform at your church, youth group, or school, please email Christa Funke at christa.funke@gmail.com